"It's in the News!"

Feb 4, 2021

Lovely Purchase Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Feb. 4 placed 167 books, donated by one of its members, in the hands of Altrusa, a "clearinghouse" of donated books. Both organizations have literacy as a focus. Although the two organizations had worked together for a book transfer project in 2020, this was the first meet and greet. The local Altrusa Club not only knows where a book is most needed, they know what condition the book needs to be in to be accepted by a library, hospital, school or book nook. They will be passed on to "just the right" place and child.
